

Tall Ships Festival

A sponsor of the 2008 Victoria Tall Ships Festival, the Provincial Capital Commission treated delegates from across the country attending the Canadian Capital Cities Organization conference to a front row seat during a cannon battle on the high seas. More than 20 ships took part in the June 26-29 festival, filling Victoria's Inner Harbour with tall masts and canvas sails and generating $5.8 million toward Greater Victoria's economy.

